

The Secret Garden Cafe

Enter the Secret Garden Café and find yourself in a shimmering, dappled light setting that envelops you in lush greenery. Sit alongside fragrant flower beds and a cool grassy oasis under abundant shade from towering pines. If just sitting there is quite therapeutic, then the healthy fresh cuisine is beyond nurturing. Offering a sumptuous menu of creatively prepared fresh ingredients, with gluten free and vegan selections as well, the Secret Garden Café is the perfect choice for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Specializing in soups, gourmet salads, sandwiches and famous Quesa “Divas” and much more, be sure to consider a gloriously sinful dessert item. And check out the specialty Kona coffees, teas, juices, wines and beer. Suite F101 • 203.9564

Let's eat outside!

Five dining favorites at Tlaquepaque

Forty-six years ago Abe Miller, visionary and founder of Tlaquepaque imagined a bustling arts village rich in south-of-the-border culture that brought the community together through festivals and family-friendly events. As the village has evolved, so have the options for exceptional dining experiences. Patio dining is in full swing and it's the perfect time of year to be outside, shaded under the coolness of the giant sycamore trees or colorful umbrellas. Dinner at Tlaquepaque under the stars with moonlight squeezing through the enormous sycamore canopy is a marvel to experience!

Whether it's elegant bistro dining at René, tapas and margaritas at El Rincon, handcrafted beers and BBQ ribs at Oak Creek Brewery and Grill, delicious summer salads and grilled paninis at Secret Garden Café, or exceptional brunches, fabulous coffees and a fun eclectic menu at the new Pump House Eatery, it's all here for your dining pleasure.

René Restaurant

René Restaurant has been a Tlaquepaque fine-dining favorite since 1977 when it was one of only two restaurants in town. The menu at this elegant European-inspired restaurant is a blend of Continental Cuisine coupled with a hint of a classic French influence introduced some twenty-five years ago by original owner/chef René Baudat. For wine lovers René is exceptional. Wine Spectator has given René the “Award of Excellence” since 2003. The wine list is impressive with over 165 different labels, old and new world offerings, with expanded French, South African and California vintages. Cradled in an intimate shaded courtyard with plenty of bistro tables, a special summer afternoon menu served from 2:30 to 5:00 for patio patrons has just the right balance. Suite B118 • 282.9225

Oak Creek Brewery & Grill

Oak Creek Brewery and Grill in Tlaquepaque is known for its award-winning premium brews, brewed on site and stored in highly polished, custom copper serving tanks behind its classic oak bar. The fabulous brews, big cozy booths, wood-fired pizza oven, high-energy open kitchen, and fantastic views, makes it the perfect gathering place for Sedona visitors, family and returning friends. Its popular second story patio with red rock views has bar style seating around the patio perimeter, a larger central table and smaller two-person tables that create an intimate, protected outdoor space that fills up quickly. El Rincon Restaurante Mexicano

El Rincon is a Tlaquepaque icon. Intimate and charming, the ambience is warm and friendly with a soothing and colorful décor. The outside patio is shaded by big bright umbrellas and is the perfect setting for casual dining. Serving traditional Mexican food with Navajo influences, El Rincon's "Arizona Style" is truly unique. Chimichangas, the house specialty, are made with sopapilla masa folded around beef, chicken, shrimp or green chili and beans. They are then deep fried and served enchilada style with Spanish rice and beans, or a sumptuous guacamole salad. Sundays through Tuesdays, El Rincon celebrates "Flamenco Music in the Courtyard" featuring Gaetano, Spanish guitar master, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., through the summer months, weather permitting. Treat yourself to tapas or your favorite beverage from their patio bar. Suite A112 • 282.4648

Pump House Station Urban Eatery and Market

The Pump House is a Sedona locals favorite, and for good reason. With its rustic retro urban vibe, the place feels immediately familiar. The staff is super friendly and relaxed and there are two great options for patio dining. Try the tables and high tops under the cozy front porch or head to the back patio dining area where bar seating faces an oasis of green grass and giant sycamores. Coffees are first class as are the sinful pastries, if you're on the go. Brunch fare is unexpectedly delicious and lunches and dinners hit the mark always. Craft beers and specialty wines with a full bar while enjoying the great outdoors is simply the best. Suite D10 • 862.4141

Environmental Realists: Discover exclusive handcrafted gift items by 120 artisans

Gary Anderson, woodworker extraordinaire has over 50 years experience and specializes in this unique product line.

If you love to collect knives-as-art there are plenty to choose from. The same goes for inlaid belt buckles and a large array of handsome jewelry in antique cases. Wall art comes in the form of copper panels and contemporary metal clocks with sleek lines and arresting designs.

And if you need a gift for one of those tough-to-shop-for family members, check out the unusual wood ducks made from 100-year-old cedar or juniper fence posts. These eye-catching items are very popular and for good reason. Like so many one-of-a-kind items at Environmental Realists, you won't find them anywhere else. Of the 120 artisans in the shop all but five—they're from Canada—are from the United States and most live locally or are based in Arizona. So spend some time in this cozy shop of authentically made wonders and take a little slice of Arizona home with you.

Environmental Realists is a cornucopia of exquisite handcrafted goods by some 120 artisans. The rich inviting interior is beautifully designed to highlight the work of dozens of woodworkers, metal artists, jewelers and more. Enjoying a forty-year-plus success story, it's the perfect shop for that stylish gift item for a special person or occasion.

Need a fantastic wedding gift that will be treasured for a lifetime? You'll find it among the shimmering hand-forged copper candlesticks, exotic wood salt and pepper mills, gorgeous wood burl bowls—some inlaid with turquoise—and turned wood vases rubberized inside to contain water. You'll love their standout cutting boards too, fashioned with the wood end grains up to ensure both practical long-lasting durability. The shop also features high gloss trays with burl veneers and leather backings, clever wood wine caddies, and more.

Speaking of caddies, check out the elegant golf putters, exclusive to the shop, fashioned with exotic woods and ready to be played on the greens or wall mounted.
